

HOME PAGE

The screenshot shows a user interface for a travel management system. At the top left is the Ambatovy logo. The main header area contains the text "Welcome Christopher Trowbridge" and "How would you like to start your next trip". Below this are five buttons: "Flight" (with an airplane icon), "Hotel" (with a calendar icon), "Car" (with a car icon), "Rail" (with a train icon and a dropdown arrow), and "Parking" (with a 'P' icon). A "Recently Updated" section follows, with the text "Continue building and editing your trips" and a "View all" link. Below this is a card with a calendar icon, the text "No upcoming trips", and a "Start New Trip" link. On the right side of the page, there are icons for language selection (globe), user profile settings (CT in a circle), and log out (exit arrow). A vertical sidebar on the left contains icons for home (house), book a new trip (+), view all trips (calendar), useful links (link), contact information (phone), and settings (gear).
